In the Words of DVN Staff

Throughout 2018, we have made some EXCITING NEW CONNECTIONS with many organizations throughout Indianapolis, providing trainings on the dynamics of domestic violence and delivering our @Work program to ensure that all employees are informed on how to handle domestic violence situations in the workplace. It is truly exciting to see the beginnings of these relationships, and to partner with organizations that are dedicated to educating their peers on domestic violence.

—Ashley Powell, Training Services Manager

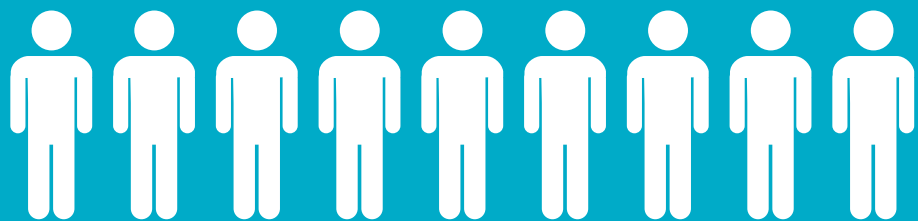

There were many awesome moments with the COMMUNITY WIDE PLAN, but Trauma Stewardship stands out the most to me. We had 100+ behavioral health service providers, domestic violence and sexual assault service providers, law enforcement, and advocates attend the mental health retreat in September. The training was great, in that guests had the opportunity to learn best practices for dealing with the inevitable, personal vicarious trauma, that comes along with working with victims.

—Cecily Johnson, Strategic Collaboration Specialist

The biggest accomplishment of 2018 was working alongside the DVN YOUTH NETWORK to advocate for an amended Title IX and Teen Dating Violence policy to the IPS Board of Commissioners. In September 2018, the IPS Board of Commissioners approved the amended policy, and now the district is working towards increasing their prevention and intervention efforts for students facing teen dating violence, sexual violence and stalking.

—Lindsay Hill Stawick, Director of Programs
